

Samples of Chronicle Ads from 2004 05

EARLHAM COLLEGE

Richmond, Indiana
Earlhamite Editor

Earlham seeks an Editor to manage its alumni magazine's production — envisioning content, researching and writing feature stories and overseeing the production of alumni notes and obituaries. The Earlhamite Editor interacts with faculty, administrators, alumni and students as well as freelance writers, photographers, designers and printers.

Bachelor's degree (master's preferred); a background in journalism, writing or English; and at least five years' publications-related experience required. Please send cover letter, resume, list of three professional references, and sample publications to:

Karen Roeper
Associate Vice President
Public Affairs Office
Earlham College
801 National Road West
Richmond, IN 47374-4095

*Applications accepted
until position filled.*

For more information, contact
jenkipa@earlham.edu or
www.earlham.edu/jobs

EARLHAM COLLEGE

Richmond, Indiana

Reference/Instruction Librarian

The College seeks a librarian as a 10-month leave replacement to join the Earlham Libraries' team, dedicated to a strong information literacy program. The librarian collaborates with other librarians and faculty in providing reference and instruction services for undergraduates engaged in active learning through research assignments. Other library projects to be assigned as appropriate. Start date is August 1.

Required: library and/or information services degree from an accredited program or comparable academic library experience.

Send: letter, resume and names of at least three references to:

Jeanette Wilson
Secretary to Library Director
Earlham College
801 National Road West
Richmond, IN 47374-4095

Application review begins Feb. 1, 2005, and continues until filled.

For more information, contact
wilsoje@earlham.edu or
www.earlham.edu/jobs

EARLHAM COLLEGE

Richmond, Indiana

Vertebrate Physiologist

This full-time, tenure track position will bridge our departmental strengths between whole organism and cellular/molecular biology. This assistant professor's teaching responsibilities include human anatomy/physiology, an upper-level specialty course, and team-taught introductory courses.

Teaching excellence and Ph.D. required. Eagerness to participate in student-faculty collaborative research important. Teaching or post-doctoral experience desirable.

Please send vitae, teaching philosophy statement, description of research interests and three letters of reference to:

Dr. Leslie Bishop
Biology Department
Earlham College
Richmond, IN 47374-4095

*Application review begins Oct. 21, 2005,
and continues until filled.*

For more information, contact
leslieb@earlham.edu or
www.earlham.edu/jobs

EARLHAM COLLEGE

Richmond, Indiana

Biochemistry/ Organic Chemistry

Tenure track position beginning August 06 in a five-member, ACS accredited department equipped with modern instruments including a 400 MHz NMR. Responsibilities include teaching biochemistry and organic chemistry and research involving undergraduates. Teaching excellence and Ph.D required.

Application process and full description is available at

www.earlham.edu/jobs

Applications will be evaluated as received until the position is filled.

For more information, contact
stockma@earlham.edu or
www.earlham.edu/jobs

EARLHAM COLLEGE

Richmond, Indiana

History/Modern Europe

Tenure-track appointment as assistant professor with teaching load of three courses a semester. Courses include general education, courses for History major and one or more interdisciplinary programs.

Requirements: Ph.D. and excellence in teaching.

Send: letter of application and CV to:

Cheri Gaddis, Secretary
History Department
Earlham College, Drawer 25,
Richmond, IN 47374-4095

*Application review begins Nov. 1.
Final deadline is Jan. 16, 2006.*

For more information, contact
cherig@earlham.edu or visit
www.earlham.edu/jobs

EARLHAM COLLEGE

Richmond, Indiana

Director of Campus Safety and Security

Earlham College seeks a seasoned professional with an understanding of the unique role safety and security plays in a college environment. The Director supervises safety and security department, directs parking services and manages the college fleet.

Full qualifications and application instructions available at www.earlham.edu/jobs.

*Review of applications continues
until position filled.*

For more information, visit www.earlham.edu/jobs or contact thomaly@earlham.edu